MARLEY®
RECOLD®

Headquartered in the Kansas City area, our company is a full-line, full-service manufacturer of cooling towers, evaporative condensers and other specialized heat exchange equipment. We provide innovative cooling solutions to help meet growing customer demand in HVAC and process cooling, industrial and refrigeration markets.

Our company's culture, developed over nearly a century, is critical to our success. The Marley Way philosophy, named for our legacy cooling tower business, the Marley Company, provides the tools to establish strong relationships with suppliers, customers and each other. The Marley Way focuses on four core values aimed at sustaining relationships: Value, Rapport, Respect and Trust.
